

Fall Energy Symposium 2017

“Community Resiliency: Emergency Preparedness and Energy Independence”

Initiative for Community Disaster Resilience (ICDR)

Masami Nishishiba, Ph.D.

Initiative for Community Disaster Resilience (ICDR)

- Housed under Center for Public Service, Mark O. Hatfield School of Government, Portland State University
- Co-directors: Hiro Ito (Economics), Masami Nishishiba (Public Administration)
- Purpose: To provide forum where people from various disciplines exchange ideas related community and disaster resilience. Raise awareness.

Activities:

- Speaker Series
- Study trip to Japan
- International exchange
- Research

Activities:

- Speaker Series
- Study trip to Japan

Other:

- International exchange
- Research

Trip Destinations:

Sunday, 6/18 - Arrive in Japan

1. a - Tohoku University

Sendai City, Miyagi Prefecture

b - Iwaki City

Fukushima Prefecture

(Mon-Wed)

2. Rikuzentakata City

Miyagi Prefecture

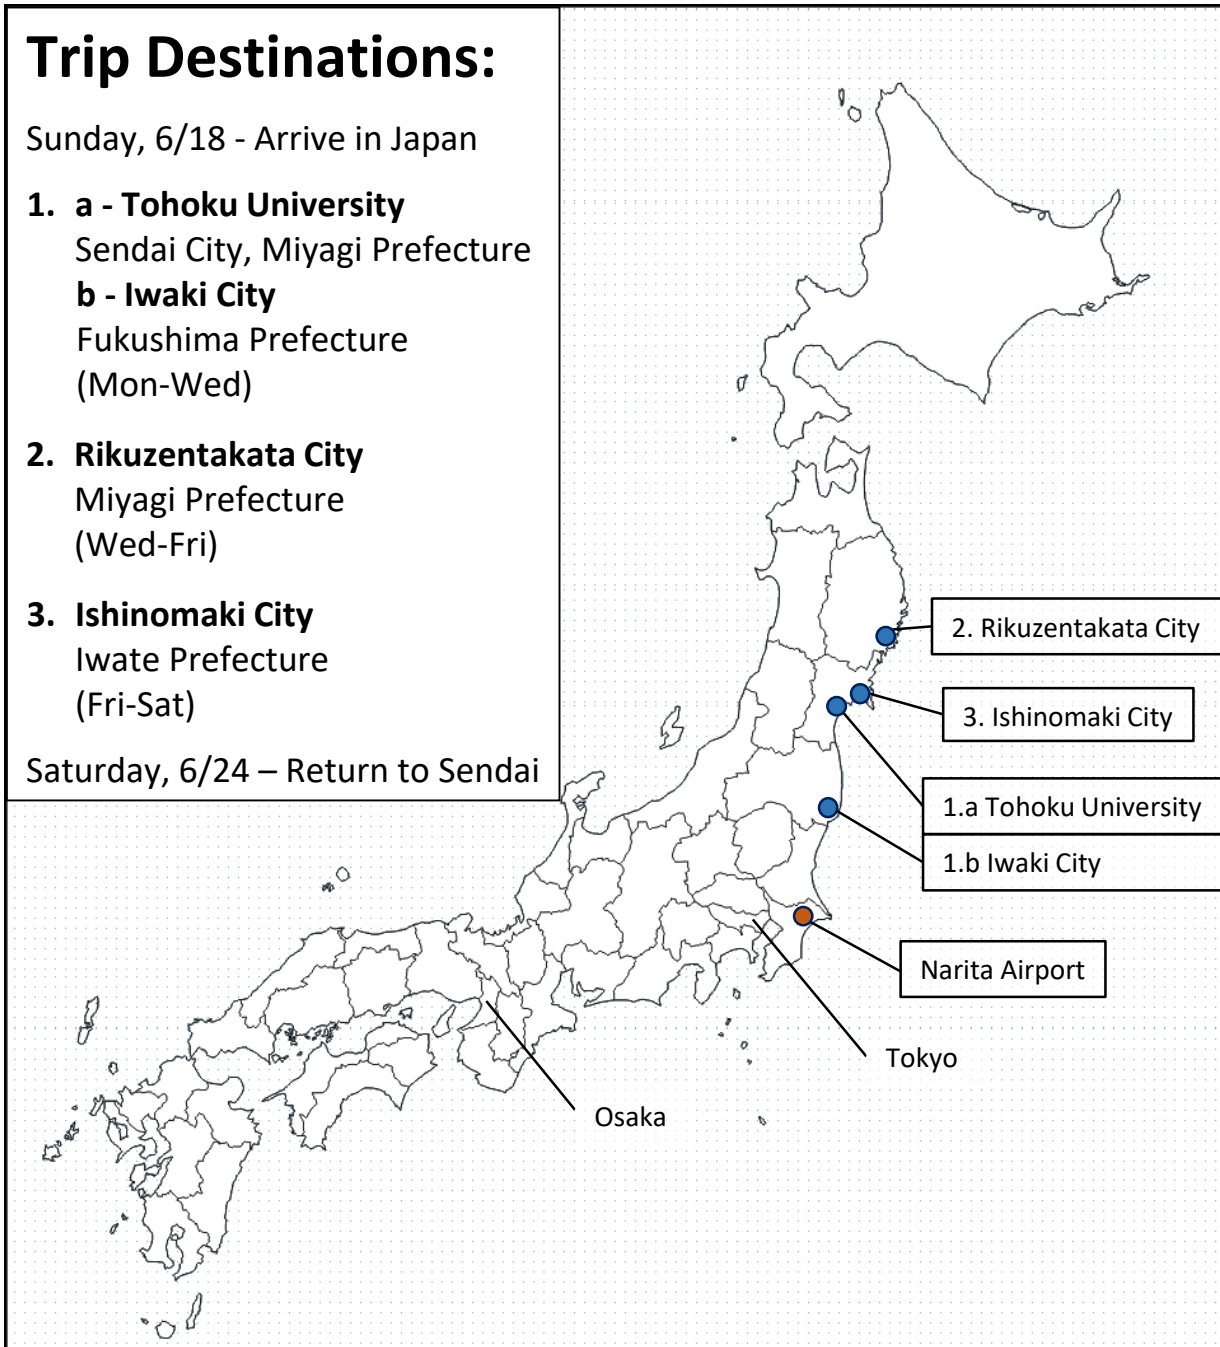

(Wed-Fri)

3. Ishinomaki City

Iwate Prefecture

(Fri-Sat)

Saturday, 6/24 – Return to Sendai

2018 Trip : June 23~30

INFO

Graduate Certificate in Energy Policy and Management

Energy planning and forecasting

Energy efficiency program management

Emerging technologies

Energy policy analysis and evaluation

Policy development/energy politics

Climate change

Energy regulation and rate-making